

This is an acceptable proposal. However, it is not as simple as merely eliminating the morse code requirement. It does undermine the General Class license somewhat.